Dear friends in Christ,

We all know that in the history of the Church there have been, and still are, divisions among Christians. In writing to the Church at Corinth, Paul does not hide his irritation with the splinter groups within that community. Each group seemed to have its allegiances, which made them look more like opposing teams than a united community of faith. Sadly, personality cults had grown up around Cephas and Apollos, even Paul himself, putting the focus on them rather than Christ.

For Paul this was intolerable, as he pleaded for them to be united not just in faith and belief, but in life and practice. It was Christ, he wrote, who had been crucified, and it was in his name alone that they had been baptized and saved. How on earth could anyone dare to claim for themselves what belonged to Christ? Paul’s message was very clear: Put Christ at the center and keep your focus on him alone. He must be the source of unity, and the Gospel should never be used for division or disunity.

This call to singlehearted focus on Christ is evident in today’s Gospel. As Peter and the others leave everything to follow Christ, he becomes the focus of their immediate and total response. From now on Christ is the center of their lives.

In our own time, thankfully, past disagreements that once gave rise to much division and even violence have now given way to efforts at dialogue and cooperation. While much remains to be done, there is a growing understanding that the invitation to follow Christ involves a shared identity and dignity. We are each called by Christ and invited to follow him, leaving behind all that might separate us from his love.

But Christian unity is not just something out there, something for Church leaders alone to work on. It is equally a part of every community of faith. The challenge for all Christians is to ask what we can do to build harmony and unity within our local community. What can we do to put Christ and his Gospel at the center of our lives so that it shines forth and attracts others? As Saint Paul reminds us, a Christ-centered community is one that works to diminish disagreements and put aside divisions by honoring Christ and seeing him as the only source of unity and forgiveness. As we close this week celebrating Christian unity, let’s ask God for the grace to draw closer to him and closer to one another. Amen.

Join us for Lenten Day of Prayer on March 28 at Mount Saint Joseph

Lent is traditionally a time when Catholic Christians recommit themselves to more serious prayer, along with fasting and almsgiving. On March 28, 2026 – the Saturday of the fifth Week of Lent – all are invited to join Sister Cheryl Clemons in Maple Hall at Mount Saint Joseph (8001 Cummings Road, Maple Mount, Ky.) for a Day of Prayer and Reflection titled “Deepening Our Prayer Life: Advice from the Four Saint Teresas.” Throughout the day, Sister Cheryl will offer insights on prayer from Saint Teresa of Avila, Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (Edith Stein), and Saint Teresa of Calcutta. The day will include quiet prayer and reflection and opportunities for small group sharing. Lunch will be provided. The cost to attend is $60. Sister Cheryl, an Ursuline Sister of Mount Saint Joseph, has been offering retreats, parish missions and OCIA programs for 30 years. She has extensive training in theology, Scripture, spirituality and spiritual direction.
