

"Therefore, stay awake for you do not know neither the day nor the hour, the Son of Man will come."

Dear Friends in Jesus Christ,

After completing training on how to get people to hell, three little devils were called before the chief devil, to evaluate their crookedness and cunningness, so that they could be promoted for their graduation and to the world to trap people. The chief devil asked them- "how are you going to get people to hell?" The first little devil said- "I will tell the people that there is no God." The chief said- "That is not going work out, because people already know that there is God." The second little devil said- "I will tell the people that there no hell." The chief said, "that idea also is not going to work, because people know when they sin, they will go to hell". Then the third little devil said- "I will tell the people, there is nothing to be worried and hurried about, you have plenty of time to repent and be ready". I think, the same devil and his kids are roaming around this world today by injecting that same idea to people. But Jesus reminds us that, there is not much time left so, "Repent and Believe in the Gospel." Dear Friends, whose words are we going to listen to?

Through the parable of ten virgins, Jesus is asking us to be prepared and be awake to meet the Lord. This does not mean that we should be awake all the time looking for the Son of Man to come, doing nothing. But Jesus reminds us that we are to be constantly prepared for His coming with the oil of grace. The attitude of awake and readiness is well exemplified in the life of St. Aloysius Gonzaga. On one occasion, while he was playing with his friends, he was asked - what he would do, if he was informed that he is going to die soon? While others said they would go for confession or make an act of contrition, he replied "I will continue to play for the love, honor and glory of God." Yes, dear friends, this is the same attitude the five wise virgins had in their lives, which every one of us are called to have also.

As we reflect about the Gospel, we should keep in mind that, the ten virgins are the children of God. They knew well that the Son of Man will come at an unexpected hour; however, five of the virgins were careless and made themselves foolish. They never bothered about their life after death, they foolishly thought that, their entire life is all about enjoying life here in this world, and gave least importance in doing the will of God. They are like the frog in the well, and the Rich fool in the Gospel. Jesus asks them "For what will it profit a man, if he gains the whole world and loses his soul? Or what shall a man give in return for his soul?" Let us ask ourselves, am I a fool in front of Jesus in this world?

The wise virgins were the ones who always thought about God, just like God thought about them. Their main concern was to do the will of God. They were very serious about their life in this world and the life after. So they attained the needed oil of grace through Love of God and Love of neighbor. The wise virgins lived the word of God in the Gospel of Mathew 7:21 "Not everyone who says to me, "Lord, Lord," will enter the kingdom of God, but only the one who does the will of my Father in Heaven." Let us ask ourselves, am I a wise one, ready and awake to meet the Lord?

Dear friends, through the Gospel Jesus reminds us that, to be a fool or wise is our decision. At the same time, Jesus wants all of us to be wise. So let us ask the Lord to give us the wisdom to do His will, thus to enter into the Kingdom of God. God Bless!
