

Dear Friends in Jesus Christ,

I have heard people making the comment about the present world; “the world and people in it are going crazy.” Have you ever thought why that is happening? A couple of months ago we had our election in our country and witnessed people supporting and arguing for their own political ideologies and political leaders respectively. The two focused political leaders during our election were our ex-president Donald Trump and the present president Joe Biden. We all know these two presidents, but which of these presidents know you personally? If our answer is none of them, that is the answer for the comment people make about the present world. Yes, we follow and argue for someone who does not know us personally and at the same time we fail to follow and argue for someone who knows us personally. Does it make any sense to us? As long as we follow this attitude in our lives, be sure people will never stop making the comment; “the world and people in it are going crazy.”

Today we celebrate the Good Shepherd Sunday. On this beautiful day, looking at each one of us very confidently Jesus says, “I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know Me....and I will lay down my life for the sheep...and they will hear my voice.” Dear friends, let me ask you, which of your favorite political leader goes along with these words of Jesus? The disciples who failed to accept Jesus as a good shepherd lost focus of their lives after the death of Jesus, that they feared, wandered and went back to their old way of life. But the disciples who accepted Jesus after His resurrection walked forward courageously by bringing many to the Kingdom of God through their ministry of life in Jesus Christ. So, the Gospel invites us to ask a personal question considering our life today-Do I accept Jesus as my good shepherd?

As we all know, we are all in a crazy situation created by the Corona Virus. So far, no political ideologies or science could bring an end to this. If things get out of our control, please do not lose hope; we have a God who can save us from this crazy situation. But how many of us are ready to turn to Him? 2 Chronicle 7:14 says “...if my people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, forgive their sin, and heal their land.” Dear friends, we all need a healing of our mind, body, soul and our country and the remedy is each one us, that is to accept Jesus as our good shepherd and lead a life pleasing to Him. This is the same message Matthew 6:33 reminds us too; “first seek the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added unto you.” Yes, Jesus the good shepherd says; “I know mine and mine know me.” No doubt, Jesus knows us, but do we know Him? We may be able to cheat anyone in this world, but we can never ever cheat our God. Please remember the words of St. John last weekend; “Those who say, I know Him, but do not keep His commandments are liars, and the truth is not in them.” Jesus the good shepherd says, “My sheep will hear my voice.” We, the Christians are His sheep, but do we care for His voice in our lives?

Dear friends, every one of us are called to be a good shepherd in our own given situations of life, and we can become a good shepherd only when we accept Jesus as our Good Shepherd. So during this Holy Eucharistic celebration let us ask the Lord to be our guide and strength in every moment of our lives. Let us humble ourselves and say to Him along with Mary our Mother- “Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord, let it be done to me according to thy word”. May the Good Lord Bless you.
