The Kroger Community Rewards program enables customers to support local nonprofit organizations simply by shopping at Kroger and using their Shopper's Card. To participate, customers create a digital account, link their Shopper's Card to a chosen organization, and then every purchase contributes to that organization at no extra cost. Donations are calculated annually based on the customer's spending relative to all participating shoppers, and local schools, churches, and nonprofits can earn significant funds through this program Enrollment is renewed annually, and organizations must be in the same Kroger division as the customer's preferred store.

Be Strong and Courageous.
Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged,
for the Lord your God
will be with you wherever you go.

ALL ARE WELCOME - IF YOU ARE A VISITOR TO OUR CHURCH, WE WANT TO WELCOME YOU. IF YOU ARE NEW TO THE PARISHES, CALL 273-3185 OR STOP BY THE OFFICE DURING OFFICE HOURS TO REGISTER.

Dear friends in Christ,

On the Solemnity of All Saints, the Church invites us to recall the holy men and women who have gone before us in faith and who have lived as authentic witnesses of the Gospel. Through their lives of faith, the saints give us hope that holiness is possible.

When we think of saints, we often think of those who have been canonized – the faithful men and women affirmed by the Church in a special way as having lived lives of heroic virtue and receptivity to God's grace. But all those in heaven, including those Pope Francis often called the "saints next door" (Gaudete et Exsultate 6), are saints we celebrate on this day. We can be sure they intercede for us with God in heaven for our needs, big and small.

Like those in Revelation whose robes have been washed … in the Blood of the Lamb, the saints come from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They have followed Christ in every Christian vocation: as priests and bishops, religious or lay people, martyrs and missionaries, young and old. The saints, our older brothers and sisters in faith, show us the many varied ways our lives can testify to God's goodness and love.

The diversity of the communion of saints should be for us a source of hope. Their varied witness bolsters our resolve and our trust in God when we hear the demands of today's Gospel. In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus instructs his disciples in true blessedness as he teaches the beatitudes. In a reversal of worldly priorities, Jesus calls blessed those who mourn, are persecuted and insulted, and those who hunger and thirst for righteousness. Calling his disciples to action, he invites them to be poor in spirit and clean of heart – to be meek and merciful peacemakers. The saints show us how to do this in diverse ways, times, and places.

What do we gain when we live as God's children, striving after holiness like these brothers and sisters? Eternal life. A future of hope, because we are rooted in Christ. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven, Jesus says.

The saints show us that the hope we have in heaven can sustain us now on earth. In the second reading Paul writes: Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. Heaven, the kingdom of beatitude – blessedness with God – is both "not yet" and "already" here. We can see this especially in the perseverance in faith and witness of love in the lives of the saints. Their joy in trial, simplicity, and courage offer proof that the God who saves is active in the world and in each of our lives.

As we gather around the Lord's table, we know we are joined by the saints and we rejoice together in the wedding feast of the Lamb. Amen.
