

Dear Friends in Jesus Christ,

Talking about our human relationship, I have heard people say, "Blood is thicker than water." In our relationship with God a blood relationship is not the qualification but doing the will of God is the qualification. This is the reason Jesus says to us, through the Gospel of today, Jesus warns every one of us; parents as well as their children, "whoever loves their father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves their son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me." Do these words of Jesus disturb your hearts and minds actually? If it is so, you are growing in Christ, if not find out, where you have gone wrong in your relationship with God.

I have heard, people saying, it is difficult to follow and live all what Jesus is asking us to do in the Bible. I am happy that I have not heard anyone say, it is impossible to what Jesus is asking us to follow and live the word of God. Let us not forget the words of Jesus in our lives, "Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many enter through it." Everyone who can reflect these words of Jesus sincerely can find out the reason for all the problems in the world. Yes, beginning to live the word of God is the same as beginning to enter through narrow gate, which is the same as taking up one's own cross daily and following Jesus.

After listening to the Gospel of today, how many of us can sincerely say that we are worthy of the Lord? If we are not worthy of the Lord, how can we seek His blessings in our lives? So, one thing is for sure, all that we enjoy in our lives today is not because of our worthiness, rather, the worthiness of God, the kindness and mercy of God. It is to the worthiness of God, everyone of us are invited to say the Gospel is an invitation to say No to our own personal will and say Yes to His will.

Today, everyone is looking for a way to enjoy peace and Jesus has the way for it. Jesus says, "In everything, do to others as you would have them do to you." Yes, Jesus is faithful to His words in His relationship to each one of us and that is why, in spite of our unworthiness, He continues to protect and bless us. Do we have same kind of mentality in our relationship with God? He loves us personally more than anything or anyone in this world, but do we love Him more than anything or anyone in this world? Yes, dear friends, unconditional love is a sacrifice, and it is about this sacrifice Jesus says, "if anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me." (Luke; 9:23)

Saint Theresa of Calcutta said, "Not all of us can do great things, but we can do small things with great love." It is the same Jesus says today; "whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward." Yes, this action could be a silly one, but what is important is great love, a love like Jesus, a love that we celebrate in the Holy Eucharist. Eucharist may be a small one; it is made possible with great love of Jesus. Today, let us ask the Eucharistic Lord to teach us to love Him unconditionally, more than anything or anyone in this world. God Bless.

Guidelines for Resuming Parish Gatherings Outside the Liturgy

Effective immediately (May 27, 2020), parish gatherings outside the liturgy (Religious Education classes, RCIA meetings, small groups, etc.) may resume with ten people or less, with the following guidelines:

- All must continue practicing physical distancing of six feet from those not living within the same household.
- All must wear a mask if closer than six feet to anyone not living within their household.
- No communal food may be shared.
- Encourage all to wash hands frequently before, during, and after the gathering.
- Encourage all to avoid touching their eyes, nose, and mouth.
- Those at high risk over 65 with heart, lung, or kidney disease, are still asked not to gather.

Thanks to everyone for your generous contributions during this unfortunate time. God Bless.
