

Dear friends in Jesus Christ,

Last weekend we noticed that Jesus had the great courage to send His disciples to preach the good news of repentance despite their failures. This weekend we notice that the disciples are coming back to Jesus to report about their mission work. From the Gospel, we all get the impression that the disciples had a very successful ministry that, "people were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat." Can anyone think about the reason for their successful ministry? The answer is that, the disciples obeyed the instructions of Jesus given for their ministry in the last weekend. Remember the great miracle happened at Cana, where Mary says to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." The servants obeyed Jesus and thereby we witnessed a great miracle. Think about the miracle that happened in the lives of Peter and His companions when they went fishing and came back catching nothing, but when they obeyed Jesus' instruction in fishing they experienced a great catch. The book of Deuteronomy 4:40 says, "Keep His statutes and commandments, which I am giving you today, so that you and your children after you may prosper, and that you may live long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you for all time." Dear friends, if you wish to prosper in your life or business or any other undertakings the only way is to obey the directions of Jesus in our lives.

As I had said in the last weekend's reflection, the purpose of our Christian call is to be with the Lord and to send out, today, as the disciples came back to Jesus to report about their ministry, Jesus says; "Come away by yourself to a deserted place and rest a while." What does this invitation of Jesus mean? It is an invitation to be with the Lord again to seek the will of God for the ministry to be continued. The true evangelization is to be with the Lord and with His people and it is the same Jesus who says: Love of God and neighbor. Only as long as we are able to maintain a good relationship with God and His people we can become his true disciples and be called as a good shepherd.

Yes, Jesus and His disciples maintained the qualities of a good shepherd and that is why people were coming after them. The Gospel says, "His heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd." Yes dear friends, today if you and I confess the truth that the world is going crazy, the answer is - the world is lacking a good shepherd. To become a good shepherd, we don't need to be president or prime minister of the nation, but we should have the qualities like Jesus the good shepherd. We should have the qualities such as: courage, attention, care, and love. Courage to defend the dangerous situation and protect the sheep. Attention that every sheep is well. Care that every sheep is sufficiently fed without any problem and guide them to the final destination. In today's world every one of us are called to become a good shepherd in our own little space. How can we become a good shepherd? There is no compromise, but be a channel of God's love in this world, because Love is the source of courage, attention, and care. It is the Love that unites guides and brings us together as children of the Good Shepherd – JESUS CHRIST. So let us accept Jesus as the leader of our life and lead a happy life in this world and the world to come. Amen.

"A humble soul does not trust itself, but places all its confidence in God." St. Faustina

Grandparents Day

Pope Francis has recently declared this July 25th to be the first annual world day of grandparents and the elderly, and has asked every Diocese to promote its celebration in each Parish community. Dear grandchildren please be sure to recognize and appreciate the love and care of your grandparents.

Natural Family Awareness Week: July 25-31, 2021
