

Dear Friends in Jesus Christ,

In the Gospel last weekend, the Canaanite woman taught us how a Christian or a Catholic should be in his/her faith. After having learned the lesson about faith, this weekend Jesus comes to test our faith in Him. What do you think, will you and I clear this test with a good score as Jesus expects from each one of us? Dear friends, the purpose of our life here in this world is to find the right answer to all the questions raised by Jesus in the Bible. Yes, the Holy Bible is full of questions and answers concerning our lives and each one of us are called to pick up the right answers and live them. Those who have wisdom get the right answer to the question and they are called by Jesus as "Blessed." To Peter, who said the right answer to the question, Jesus says, "Blessed are you, Simon, son of Jonah."

After having walked with Jesus for a long time and witnessed His preaching, teaching, miracles, healings etc., Jesus makes an attempt to enter into their hearts to know their understanding of Him and His mission in this world. The first question of Jesus to His disciples is very impersonal, "who do people say that the Son of Man is?" It does not take much effort to explain about what others think about. Here, one person does not take a personal responsibility for the comment. The Gospel says, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." Here, Jesus is not much concerned about what others say, because you and I are judged by Jesus not based on what others say, but based on what you are, which is known to Jesus very well. The Book of Hebrews 4:13 says to us that, "Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight; everything is uncovered and exposed before the eyes of Him to whom we must give account."

Jesus takes one more step forward into our hearts with His second question which is very much personal and expects a responsible answer from each one of us. Who do you say that I am? This question can be answered only from a personal experience and am sure; this is the toughest question we all will have to face in one point of our lives. The success and failure of our Christian life is determined by the answer to this question from the bottom of our hearts. St. Peter gave the right answer to this question by saying "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." This answer of St. Peter is not from his personal experience with Jesus that is why Jesus very clearly says, "For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly father." Flesh and blood are part of this world and so Jesus says, "this worldly experience did not help you to find this answer, rather it is an answer inspired by the Heavenly Father". Yes, my dear friends, the 'answer' of St. Peter is the effect of true faith, which is a free gift from God. It is the same faith the Canaanite woman professed in last weekend's Gospel, and this is the same faith every one of us are invited to profess in everyday of our lives from our hearts in good times and bad, in richness and in poor, in sickness and in health; "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." May you be blessed with a strong faith in Jesus Christ. God Bless.

Guidelines for Resuming Parish Gatherings Outside the Liturgy

Effective immediately (July 1, 2020), parish gatherings outside the liturgy (parish picnics, faith formation gatherings, RCIA meetings, etc.) as well as non-parish sponsored events held by groups renting or using parish facilities or property.

- Limit the persons in attendance to no more than 50% of the maximum permitted occupancy capacity of the space.
- Maintain physical distance of six feet minimum from those not living within the same household.
- Wear face covering over mouth and nose. Based on CDC recommendations, everyone over the age of two must wear a mask for the duration of any event held on parish property if closer than six feet to anyone not living within the same household. Those unable to wear a face mask at the event, whether it be due to age, health condition, or preference, are asked to stay healthy at home.
- Conduct temperature and health checks for each participant.
- Ensure proper, frequent cleaning and sanitation of the gathering space, including restrooms.
- Encourage those at high risk to stay Healthy at Home.
- Follow State of Kentucky Healthy at Work Requirements for Restaurants and Bars for any form of food service. A summary follows:
  - o Maximize outdoor seating
  - o Tables or booths should be placed six (6) feet apart.
  - o Only those living within the same household should sit together.
  - o No communal food, buffets or self-service for food or drinks.
  - o Use disposable napkins, tablecloths, utensils and condiments. Condiments must be single-use, disposable.
