The Kroger Community Rewards program enables customers to support local nonprofit organizations simply by shopping at Kroger and using their Shopper's Card. To participate, customers create a digital account, link their Shopper's Card to a chosen organization, and then every purchase contributes to that organization at no extra cost. Donations are calculated annually based on the customer's spending relative to all participating shoppers, and local schools, churches, and nonprofits can earn significant funds through this program Enrollment is renewed annually, and organizations must be in the same Kroger division as the customer's preferred store.

Be Strong and Courageous.
Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged,
for the Lord your God
will be with you wherever you go.
~Joshua 1:9

The Parishioners of St. Sebastian & St. Charles Catholic Churches of McLean County would like to thank all the businesses that help support our bulletin both in the past and the present.

Sacrament of Baptism
The Sacrament of Baptism for infants is administered upon request. Parents and Godparents must attend class on Baptism in the Catholic Church. Please contact the pastor or the office to set up an appointment for this class at least a month in advance. At least one parent must be a practicing Catholic for their child to be baptized in the Catholic Church. Godparents must be at least 16 years of age, and at least one must be a practicing Catholic.

Is anyone sick/admitted in the hospital?
If anyone is sick or admitted in the hospital, please let Pastor know or call the office.

Sacrament of Penance
Sacrament of Penance is administered every Saturday at 3:00 pm or by appointment at St. Sebastian Church.

Rite of Christian initiation of adults and children (RCIA):
Adults interested in becoming Catholic participate in the Rite of Christian Initiation (RCIA). The Rite of Christian Initiation is a process of initiation into the Catholic Community of Faith. This is for persons who are seeking baptism in the Catholic Church or full communion with the Catholic tradition through the Profession of Faith, reception of Eucharist and Confirmation. If you are interested, please call the office.

Sacrament of Marriage
A couple wishing to marry must contact the priest at least six months before the desired wedding date. According to the guidelines of our diocese, you should not make absolute plans for a specific wedding date until after meeting with the pastor. The couple will be required to attend a marriage preparation course which will include at least one formal program such as an Engaged Encounter weekend of the Sponsor Couple Program.

Bulletin Information
Information for the Bulletin needs to be submitted to St. Sebastian's office by Wednesday.

Dear friends in Christ,

With the upcoming holiday season, our Gospel today offers a perhaps surprising and counter-cultural message. All around us we may hear the conflicting voices of the world talking about all the things we must do and buy in order to be ready for the season. And, paradoxically in some ways, we also hear, "You have to take care of yourself. Take time to slow down and invest in self-care." It's a dizzying contradiction, and one that falls sadly short of satisfying the deepest longing of our hearts.

Here at the culmination of the liturgical year, our Church offers us a very different, and very clear call. Today we proclaim that Christ is King – that the longing of our hearts is not to be satisfied with purchases or parties or even a day of indulgent self-care, as good as any of these things might be. Only the highest, eternal good, the King of all the Universe, is enough for the depths of our yearning. It is Jesus Christ who will rescue us from every place where [we] were scattered when it was cloudy and dark. It is Christ the King who will give [us] rest, who will bring [us] back, and bind up our injuries.

And, again, our Gospel offers a clear call to those who pledge service to this high King. In opposition to the consumerism or self-focus of this age, our call is sacrificial love, feeding the hungry, welcoming the stranger, caring for the ill, visiting the prisoner. There is no doubt about it – this is the command of our King, and if we do not offer a generous yes to these commands, we are not submitting ourselves to his rule of love.

In the intensity of the demands of the upcoming season, we are invited to run our choices, our priorities, through this filter: Are we saying yes to Christ?

If we are saying yes to him, then our tender shepherd will provide. He will give us all we need. He will give us insight into where our gifts are to be used. He will give us the resources and time to say this yes. He will give us the strength and help to say this yes.

As we approach this Eucharistic feast, let us ask our Good Shepherd to provide all we need to see the where and how we are called to serve others generously. As we draw near to our high King in this Eucharist, let us ask for the grace to respond to his loving call. Amen.

Now Hiring: Human Resources Director
The Diocese seeks a mission-driven Human Resources Director to lead HR operations and support clergy, religious, and lay employees. Responsibilities include employee benefits, HR policies, and guidance for parishes and schools. A related bachelor's degree and five to seven years of progressive HR leadership experience are required, along with familiarity with Catholic Church structures, culture, and values.
Submit resume to Fr. Jason McClure, Jason.McClure@pastoral.org.

"Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me."
How can we identify a real king or a queen? Is it the fine clothes and jewel encrusted crowns they wear or their regal demeanor and stately appearance? Do they sit on thrones raised above all the other people and give orders that make others fearfully rush to fulfill their every command? No!!!! Hollywood may portray them as such and that may be how some kings and queens actually lived. But a real king or queen is one who cares equally about everyone for whom they are responsible. David was a real king. Despite his well-documented faults and sins, he sought to assure that all of the Kingdom of Judah shared equally in the resources and protection of the kingdom. He understood that whatever he did for the least in God's kingdom, he did for God. That is why the Northern Kingdom of Israel prevailed upon David to be their king. Jesus is a Davidic King so today we honor him as Christ the King. Jesus challenges us to be Davidic kings and queens who understand that whatever we do for the least in God's kingdom, we do for God.

Sponsor a Bed at St. Benedict's Homeless Shelter
Every night, 64 men find a safe place to sleep at St. Benedict's Homeless Shelter in Owensboro. For 21 years, the shelter has offered safety, meals, showers, and case management to men working toward stable housing. You can sponsor a bed for $500 a year, which is less than $1.40 a day. Any gift helps.
One of those men is Richard. After five years of homelessness, he found a home with the shelter's help. Today he volunteers there daily. In his words: "They motivated me. They made me feel human."
To give, visit the shelter's website, mail a gift to 1001 West 7th Street, Owensboro, KY 42301, or stop by for a tour. Thank you for believing in our mission. – Harry Pedigo, Executive Director
